About Company

☐ Provided by Customer

For over 45 years, Sunkist has steadily served the worldwide polyurethane foaming industry with our robust high-fidelity machines, all manufactured to order by us right here in Taiwan. Founder Ken Hwang established the principles of "Sunkist Quality" for our company's products, spent decades hard at work building machines of every function precise to customer specifications, and cultivated a network of clients all over the globe. Because of this, we have become the only company to offer both high-end foaming and cutting machines, as well as products to serve all other functions in the foam plant. Our key markets have been foaming, mattresses, rubber, and nonwoven material in over 140 countries. We provide reliable, efficient, and durable machinery for our customers, and strive to continuously improve our product quality to match, if not become, the best in the world.
