Webcontrol Fabulous Film Processing

Founded in 1988, Webcontrol started with machine control systems and by working towards the company philosophy of 'applying technology to the pursuit of excellence' expanded our product range into the flexible packaging market. Webcontrol from here transformed into a global brand with flexible packaging machinery that is used in many industries such as food, daily necessities, medical, electronic and many other industries that have a requirement for plastic films and specialty films.

Having a core competitiveness in R&D and manufacturing has been a boon for Webcontrol and has enabled us to develop various types of equipment for the flexible packaging industry. Some of the products in our range include: Rotogravure printing machines, control systems, proofing machines, dry lamination machines, slitting machines, inspection rewinding machines, PVC shrink labelling machines, seaming machines, re-reeling/doctoring machines, cutting machines and more. This integrated whole plant equipment and shrink labelling has caught the attention of many different kinds of buyers and at present we have had sales exceeding 2,000 sets of flexible packaging machines and over 3,000 sets of machinery control systems.

Webcontrol proactively interact with foreign manufacturers, accumulating the knowledge and techniques that bring our customers some of the most competitive, high-performance, immensely precise, energy-saving machinery. We also use our expertise in control systems to ensure that all of our machines are incredibly user friendly, so that even inexperienced operators can bring your factory up to production right away.
