About Company

☐ Provided by Customer

Jufan has been in the automation key component industry for more than 40 years. Our focuses are hydraulic cylinder, pneumatic cylinder and hydraulic power unit. After years of product development and quality improvement, we are the leading brand for hydraulic cylinder in Asia. Our products are trusted by global brands in tire machinery, injection machinery, mold industry, rubber machinery, machine tool industry, medical device industry and steel mill industry.

Jufan will continue to explore potential markets for mid to high end hydraulic components in Asia, Europe and the United States. In addition, we strive to expand into new and emerging industries to become the primary suppliers of hydraulic component in the world.
