About Company

☐ Provided by Customer

APACH®, founded in Taichung, Taiwan in 1994, is a well-known worldwide pneumatic tool pioneer, innovator and manufacturer. With 26-year experiences, APACH continues to carve one goal in mind – BUILDING FUTURES.

Apach' s ultimate goal is to make its brand international to cope with a diversified society and cater to clients' needs. The company provides more diverse services and taps into more fields to meet market demand. In 2016, it acquired a pneumatic tool company with 30 years of experience in manufacturing. In 2017, it began to develop a series of pneumatic wrenches, air spray guns, air sander, and other pneumatic tools. In addition to its nailer and stapler series to fulfill the need for one-stop purchase and provide more options for clients.

Apach' s global proportion distribution of business shows that 50% of the business is located in North America, 23% in Europe, 14% in Southeast Asia, and 12% in other countries. With a powerful R&D team and a wealth of collaborating experience with international brands, the company can customize or develop special-purpose tools tailored to OEM and ODM requests. Apach also collects client feedback and seeks to manufacture products that better fit the needs of users.

Apach strictly follows quality requirements in every manufacturing process including R&D, purchase, inspection, production and testing. It uses precise manufacturing equipment and inspection instruments to replace human-operated production line and tests. The products go through 3 layers of quality check, which means adding 2 full-range tests to the post-assembly test and pre-shipment inspection.

APACH embraces not just opportunities, but challenges and turns the challenges into success. With decades of devotion in the industry, APACH® realized that a commitment to customer is not merely quality management, but to society. It' s our commitment to BUILDING FUTURES. APACH® has never stopped, and will not, to keep on striving to be better APACH.
